The Chief of Police is authorized to issue temporary bow and arrow deer hunting authorization for certain designated properties within the city. This authorization is issued during deer hunting season for bow and arrow, as authorized by the state and the state department of natural resources. All other rules and regulations established by the state department of natural resources regarding hours, limits, zones, and so forth, shall be adhered to. Any person hunting on designated property shall have the written permission of the property owner allowing them to hunt on the designated property in their immediate possession.
